History

In 1933 Joe and Frances Spitalo purchased a small gas station and store at the corner of Morrison Blvd and West Thomas St. in Hammond, LA. The previous owner, Mr. Felder made a BBQ sauce that Joe really liked. Mr. Felder agreed to show Joe how to make this special sauce, and so they began selling BBQ sandwiches out of the back door of the gas station. HiHo BBQ was born, and the name behind HiHo still remains a mystery.

However, Hi-Ho BBQ #5 has more than just BBQ sandwiches. Our menu has a mix of Mexican food, and breakfast. So come give us a try! Thank you!
